GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS JURKOWSKI TO BUILDING COMMISSION

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Lou Jurkowski of Raleigh to the North Carolina State Building Commission.

Jurkowski is president of Brown Jurkowski Architectural Collaborative. She is a registered architect in North Carolina and South Carolina. She is a member of the advisory board for the Women's Center, a member of Leadership North Carolina and a member of the American Institute of Architects. She received the Top 24 Impact Entrepreneurs Award from Business Leader Magazine in 2008 and the Women In Business Award from Triangle Business Journal in 2007. Jurkowski received her Bachelor of Arts degree and Master of Architecture degree from Clemson University in S.C.

The commission develops procedures to direct and guide the state's capital facilities development and management program. There are nine members on the board, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints three members. The Senate President Pro Tempore and the Speaker of the House each appoint three members.
